The Pacific Mail steamship Siberia, Captain Zeeder, may arrive here today, on her way to the Orient. Under the present conditions it is uncertain whether she will make a seven-day trip down from San Francisco, or will come down in six days according to her regular schedule. The Toyo Kisen Kaisha steamers all have come down in six days and have stayed outside of the harbor, in order to avoid trouble in regard to the quarantine regulations, on account of their coming from San Francisco where bubonic plague is prevalent.

The Siberia will bring down five days' mail for this city, as, though the Hilonian left only three days before, she takes longer to make the trip than the big Pacific Mail liner.

SALES ON TUESDAY.

Once more Captain Johnson, of the Hilonian, and his crew will be cheated out of a holiday on shore. The Hilonian will leave for San Francisco on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, departing from the Brewer wharf. For this reason those on the Hilonian will miss being in town on New Year's day.

The band will be on hand to see that the Hilonian gets her regular send-

BRINGS ISLAND PRODUCE.

The Inter-Island steamer Iwalani, Captain Self, arrived in port early yesterday morning, bringing down a large cargo of produce from Maui and Molokai. Pigs, ready for New Year luau, were present in great abundance, chickens, for the same purpose, could be heard crowing at the wharf and fresh corn, taro, fish and other good things to eat formed the main part of her load.

Captain Self reports northeast trades on the outward trip, with a heavy sea, but on the way back only good weather was encountered. The Iwalani will sail on her regular trip to Maui and Molokai port this afternoon at five o'clock.

BRINGS MANY CATTLE.

Captain Bruhn, of the steamer Maui, brought his little vessel into port yesterday with a large cargo of cattle. She had sixty-nine head of stock and six calves on board, besides a large amount of miscellaneous produce, which she brought from Kawaihae. Her purser reports the Mauna Loa at Hokena on Saturday, and the Noeau as gone to Kailua to load cattle.

BRING SUGAR.

Two steamers of the Inter-Island fleet arrived in port yesterday with cargoes of sugar for shipment to the Atlantic Coast. The Ke Au Hou, Captain Tullett, brought in 14,965 sacks of sugar from Kauai, and reports meeting with heavy seas on her way to Honolulu.

The steamer Niihau, which also arrived yesterday morning, brought in 5650 sacks of sugar from Koloa, arriving after a very quick trip. She comes near holding the record for fast loading among the vessels which run between the islands.

NEXT MAIL TOMORROW.

The next mail leaving for San Francisco will go by the Hilonian, which will sail tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. After her departure no mail will get away till the sailing of the Asia, which will leave here either on January 3 or 4.
